Pedders is pleased to expand its list of chassis parts with its new listings of engine mounts to suit Holden Commodore.

Of particular interest is the 584001 hydraulic engine mount. This mount is usually replaced due to the original mount failing early in the cars life. It is usually recognised by the annoying knocks whilst driving due to the engine hitting the cross member.

For customers that demand a more serviceable mount then the Pedders 584002 solid rubber mount is the solution to this problem particularly for modified vehicles.
